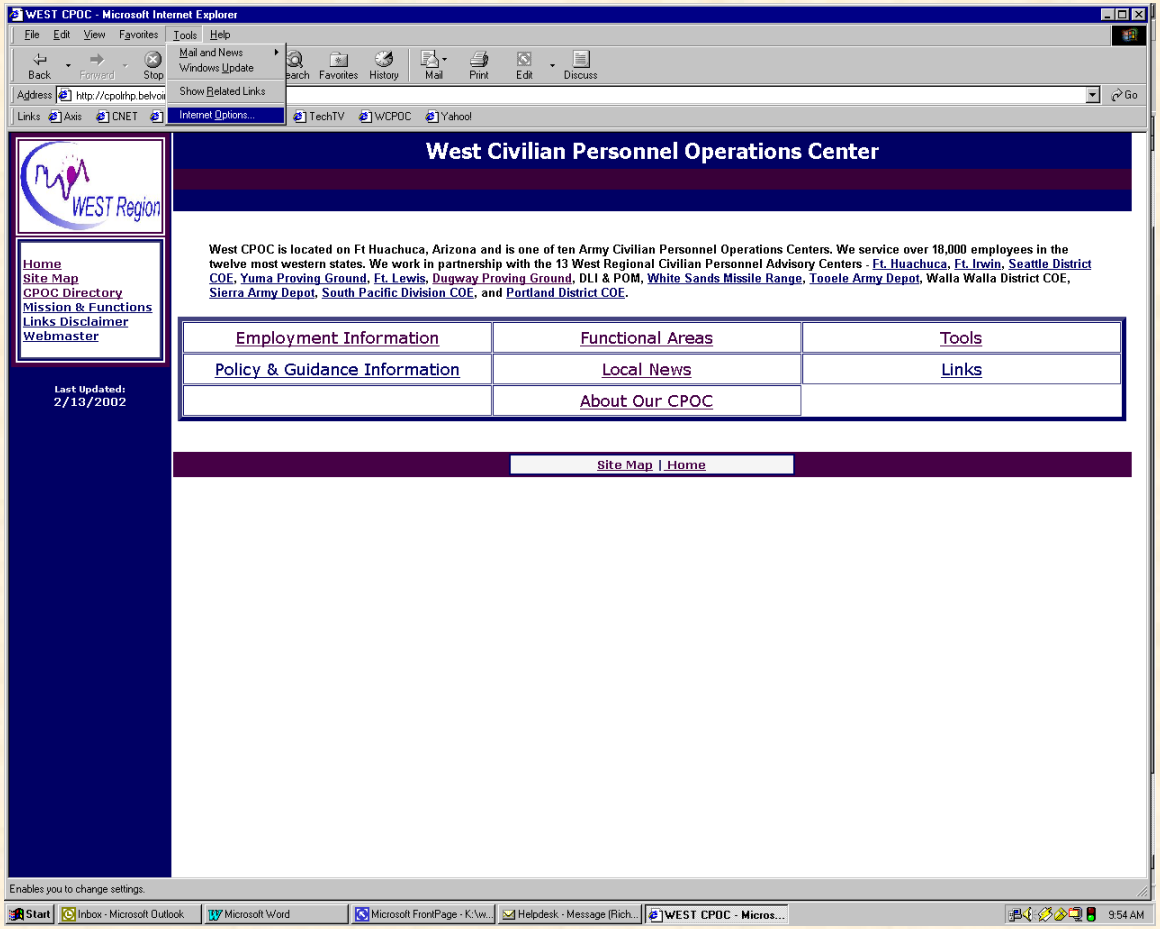
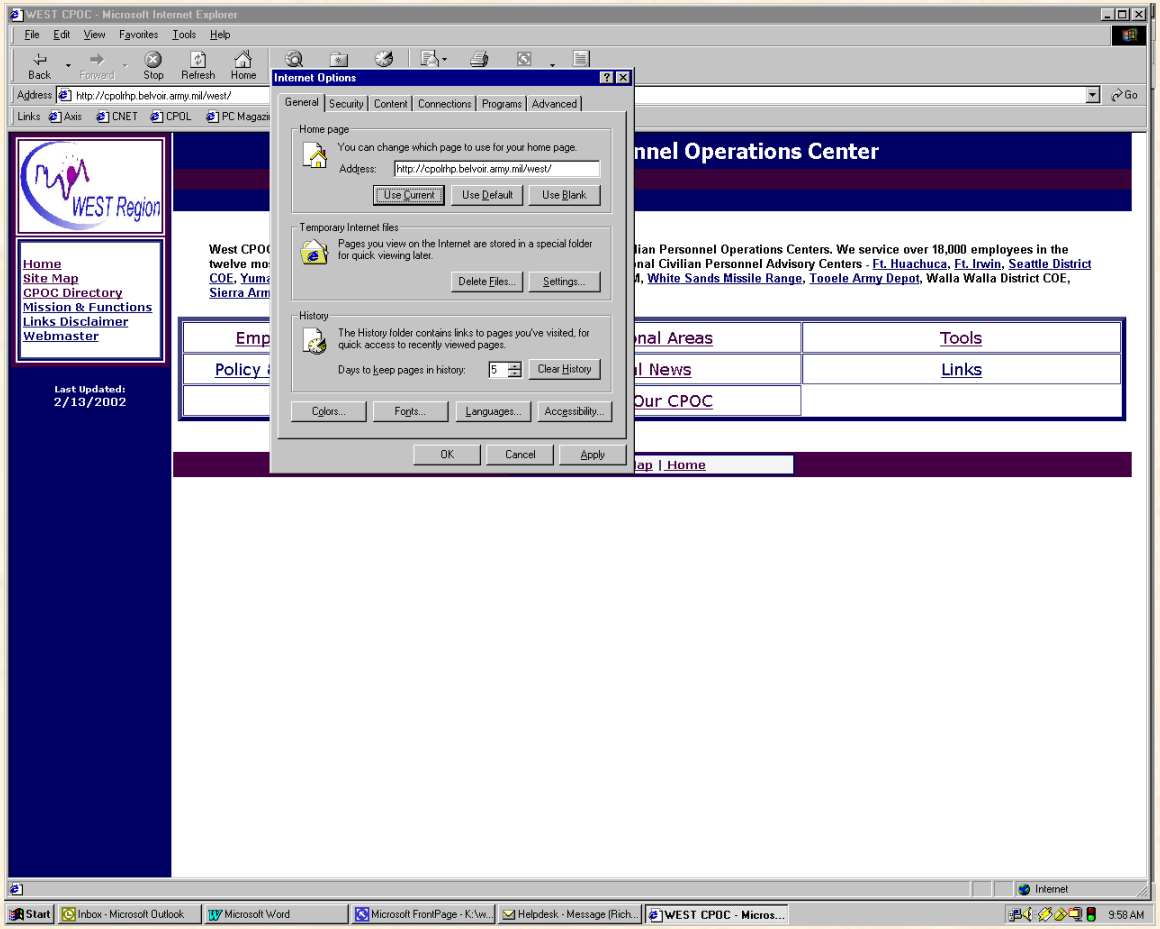
Clearing your Temporary Internet Files In Microsoft Internet Explorer 5.5

1. Select tools
2. From the dropdown menu choose Internet Options.



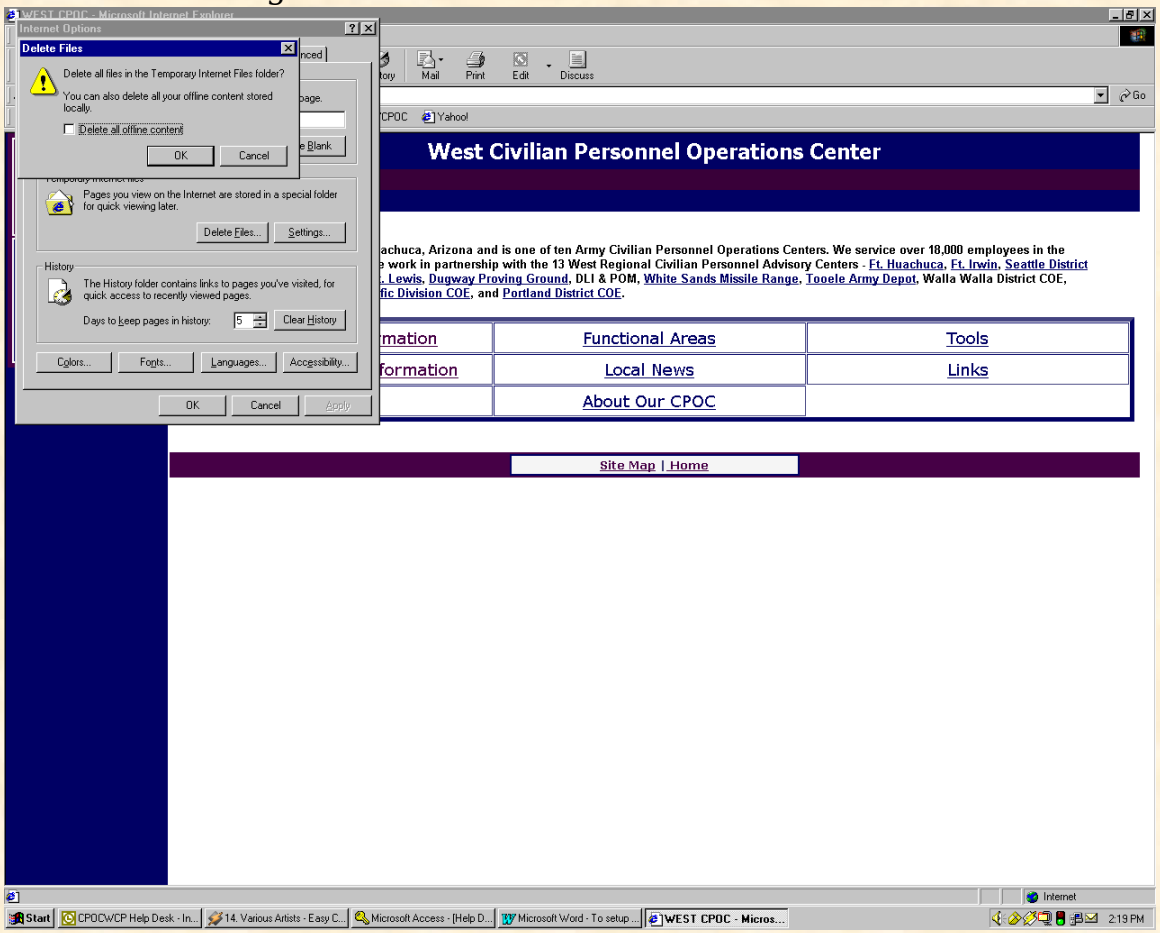
WEST CPOC - Microsoft Internet Explorer
File Edit View Favorites Tools Help
Mail and News
Windows Update
Show Related Links
Internet Options...
Back Forward Stop Search Favorites History Mail Print Edit Discuss
Address http://cpolhp.belvoi
Links Axis CNET TechTV WCPOC Yahoo!
Go
WEST Region
Home
Site Map
CPOC Directory
Mission & Functions
Links Disclaimer
Webmaster
Last Updated:
2/13/2002
West Civilian Personnel Operations Center
West CPOC is located on Ft Huachuca, Arizona and is one of ten Army Civilian Personnel Operations Centers. We service over 18,000 employees in the twelve most western states. We work in partnership with the 13 West Regional Civilian Personnel Advisory Centers - Ft. Huachuca, Ft. Irwin, Seattle District COE, Yuma Proving Ground, Ft. Lewis, Dugway Proving Ground, DLI & POM, White Sands Missile Range, Tooele Army Depot, Walla Walla District COE, Sierra Army Depot, South Pacific Division COE, and Portland District COE.
Employment Information
Functional Areas
Tools
Policy & Guidance Information
Local News
Links
About Our CPOC
Site Map | Home
Enables you to change settings.
Start
Inbox - Microsoft Outlook
Microsoft Word
Microsoft FrontPage - K:\w...
Helpdesk - Message (Rich...
WEST CPOC - Micros...
9:54 AM

3. When the Internet Options window appears

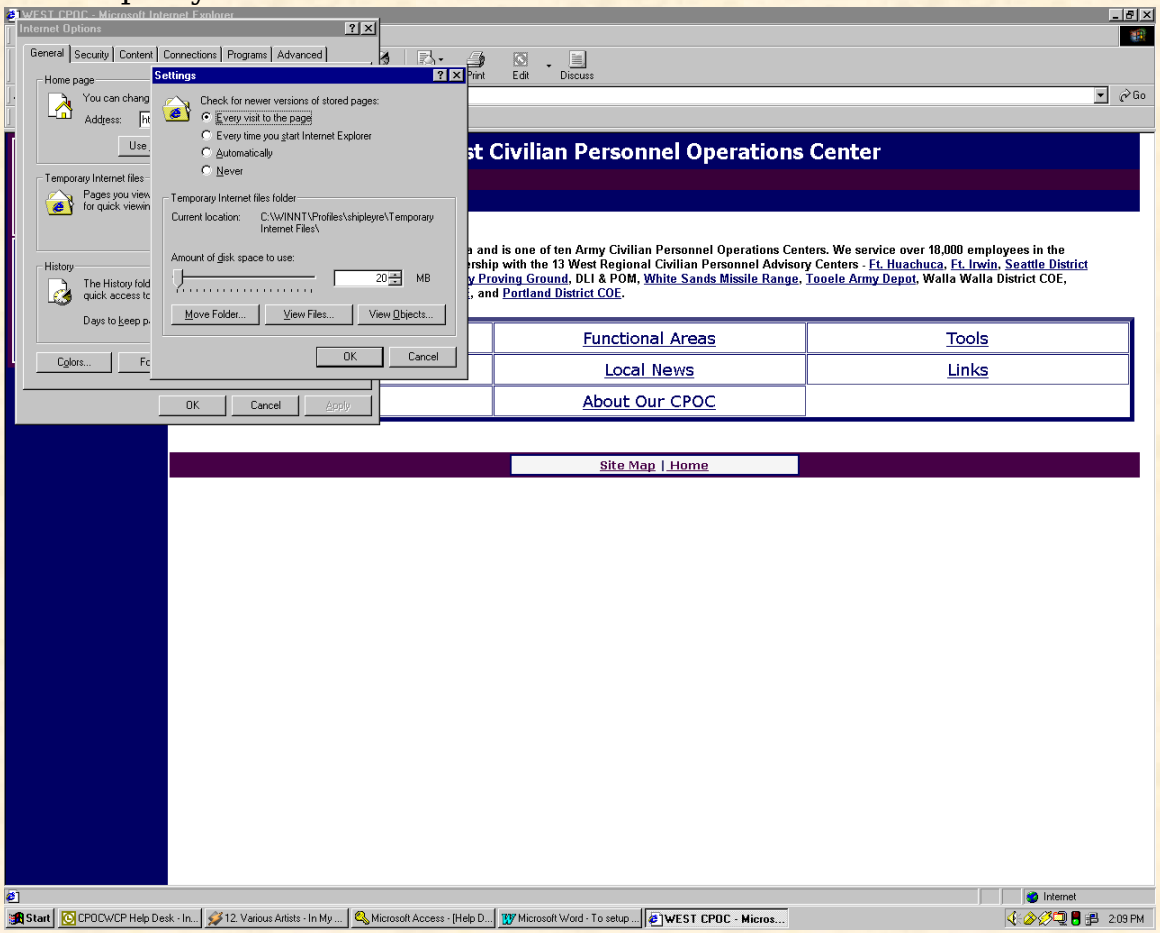


4. Select the Delete Files button.
5. When the Delete Files window appears, select Ok

6. Select Settings



7. When the Settings window appears, select “Every visit to the page.”
8. Under the Temporary Internet files folder section. Change the “Amount of disk space to use:” to 20 MB.
9. Select Ok.
10. Select OK.
11. Close your browser.
12. Open your browser.



Thank You